FOL's Friends & Family Weekend Nov. 1-2

Join the Friends of the PWPL, once again, for this annual event which highlights the library as a friendly meeting place for patrons of all ages. All events are free and held in the library. Saturday November 1 features silent vaudevilian, Chip Bryant performing for children at 11am; a paperback book swap from 12 - 4 pm, and at 3 p.m a family movie with free popcorn and beverages. Sunday features a lecture by noted film critic and author William Wolf at 2 p.m.

Twin Pines Celebrates Co-Op Month With Month-Long Open House

This is a great opportunity to get acquainted with Twin Pines, the only food Co-Op on L.I.

While you may have seen, or visited, the thrift store (a great place to find children's clothes, toys, strollers and furniture) there is much more to Twin Pines. In addition to providing clothing to families in need, TP provides business and life-style training, and feeds some 3000 people each month through its Outreach Program. Twin Pines collects food from Long Island Harvest and others, then delivers it to many community organizations on a weekly or bi-weekly basis. The shop promotes and sells healthy living, natural and organic foods and green products including environmentally friendly cleaning supplies. You can shop the aisles or place orders in advance. Clothing and household donations are welcome by appointment at 883-9777.

Edna Turner and her staff will be happy to explain the benefits and opportunities of membership in the Co-Op. The Co-Op is located at 382 Main Street.

PRIDE IN PORT OCT 18th: SOMETHING FOR EVERYONE

The 20th Annual Pride in Port Celebration recognizes the full spectrum of people and opportunities Port Washington offers its citizens.

Beginning with the Schreiber Hall of Fame Breakfast through to the last dance at the Polish American Hall, this is truly a day that everyone can enjoy. And, everyone is invited to join in on the fun, food and entertainment.

Happenings include the Pride in Port Parade at 11:30 honoring the children of Port Washington and featuring many groups including the Schreiber High School Marching Band. The parade is followed by the Family Fun Day events at Campus Drive with games, refreshments, Karaoke, face and pumpkin painting, goodies for the kids and more.

The Senior Citizens's Luncheon is at 1:00 in the Schreiber cafeteria featuring Vin Roddie at the piano before lunch, followed by Disco music for the younger at heart.

Then, the kick-off for the Schreiber High School Varsity Football game is at 1:30 with Hall of Fame ceremonies during halftime.

The Big Finale is the Annual Pride in Port Dinner Dance, featuring the "Great Tastes of Port" at the Polish American Hall. Cocktails and appetizers begin at 7:00 and dinner is served beginning at 8:00pm. Shish Kebab Restaurant provides the dinner with the healthy support of more than 20 local restaurants who provide their specialties in appetizers and entrees. If you like a variety of food styles and choices, this is the ultimate in tastes from around the world available right here in Port. Music and entertainment will feature "Juke Box Saturday Night." This promises to be a very special 20th Anniversary celebration. Tickets for the Dance are available at 883-0313 (Marie or Dave) or 883-6693 (Barbara).

Info on all Pride in Port activities is available from the Chamber of Commerce office at 883-6566 or Barbara at 883-6693.
