Well known Rock'n Roll Revue

Summer is here and music is in the air... all around Port Washington. Whether you like your music hot or cool, on the water or in an air conditioned theater, with a libation or a full meal, the choice is yours – all around Port for the full month of July. As you will find on page 6 of this PW

Calendar, the Town of North Hempstead has a full series of concerts at the newly renovated North Hempstead Beach Park (formerly Bar Beach), and a two-concert event at Manorhaven Park. These are all inexpensive, mostly with a low parking or per car fee. Then, of course, the totally free concerts in the Sousa Bandshell at Sunset Park.

Want something more? Check out the local restaurant entertainment schedule on page 3. The variety is endless and the fun is uniquely Port Washington.

Welcome to Summer!

Save the Date: August 2, 2008

Port Washington Kayak Run

The Community Chest of Port Washington and the Town of North Hempstead invites all to participate in the fourth annual Manhasset Bay Kayak Run, to be held on August 2, at 9:00 am, starting at the Town Dock. The event provides an opportunity to explore Manhasset Bay via kayak, with check points along the way to qualify for prizes. It is not a race and all are welcome. This year's suggested course will be over six miles but there is no need to complete it – you do as much as you can.

The Kayak Run is a family event open to kayakers of all skill levels and is limited to human powered kayaks of all sizes and shapes. Come bring your own kayak or rent a kayak from Atlantic Outfitters at a special reduced rate in this community event.

Application forms are available via the Community Chest website (www.portchest.org), at the Town Dock, Atlantic Outfitters or the Twin Pines Food Co-op. The entry fee (donation) is $25 ($35 if paid on August 2) for adults; $5 for participants under age 20.

The Kayak Run is sponsored by the Town of North Hempstead, Port Kayak Club, Atlantic Outfitters and the Community Chest.

For more information, call the Community Chest at 767-2121, or Atlantic Outfitters at 767-2215.

Port Washington

Organic Farmers' Market

Now in its sixth year, the Port Washington Farmers' Market is a popular destination on Saturday mornings. Located on the Town Dock, there is ample room for parking and lingering over a cup of organic coffee and oven-warm muffins and scones in the new Market Café.

This is also the place for those looking for a source of local, sustainably grown food. (Note: these enlightened people are known as locavores and can be identified by their healthy glow!)

Early summer offerings include lettuces, spring onions, strawberries, peas, sorrel and a variety of greens.

As the season continues, farmers bring in their tomatoes, peppers, eggplants, squashes, beans and other just-picked summertime vegetables. Early fall brings winter squashes, pumpkins, root vegetables and corn. The berries, peaches, melons and other locally grown fruits are mouth watering and so much sweeter than their store-bought cousins. Other vendors include Nordic Bakers (and brothers) who produce an incomparable Finnish rye, and a local Port Washington beekeeper.

The market is the only 100% organic market in New York State and is growing each year, drawing new customers from Port and surrounding communities. Open Saturdays, June-October, from 8am until noon, rain or shine.

Please bring your own bag or basket. For more information, call Grassroots at 883-0887.

PRC MEMBERS AND FRIENDS

Some exciting news! We have just opened another section of Raccoons camp for children ages 3 to 4 this summer. Camp will be from July 7th to August 14th, Monday through Thursday from 9:30 AM to 12:00 PM. The cost is $950 for the summer. We will have stories, crafts and songs in our air-conditioned classrooms, water play on our lovely shady lawn and in the water play area in Blumenfeld Park. Once a week Lynda Quinn will do music with the campers and on another day Elise May will do role playing and dramatics. We will have several field trips to sites of local interest.

We also have some spots left in our afternoon Pandas class for 2 to 3 year olds. Pandas will meet Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday from July 7th to August 13th, 1-3 PM. Or you can choose any two out of three days. The cost is $395 for two days and $565 for three days. Our warm and loving staff will help your child make the most of this first camp experience.

Please call the PRC office if you are interested in this special opportunity for your child. 232 Main Street, Suite 4, Port Washington

SERVICE & FRATERNAL ORGANIZATIONS

Wednesday, July 30, 7:00pm

Port Washington Public Library Come in from the mid-summer heat and see a lively presentation of your town as it used to be. You'll be amazed and amused at the schools, the parades, the boats, the restaurants, the yacht clubs and many more parts of our town that are gone, but not forgotten. You'll also realize how much of the history of Port Washington is still all around you, in the streets, buildings and shoreline that we all travel past every day.

Presented by Chris Bain, of the Cow Neck Peninsula Historical Society.
