Science Museum of Long Island Hosts

A Halloween Family Fun Party Friday, October 30 at 6pm

The 105-year old Gold Coast mansion located on the Leeds Pond Preserve will be transformed for an evening of Halloween festivities on Friday October 30 at 6 pm.

The Halloween Family Fun Party will entertain, educate and haunt children of all ages. The evening will hold many activities and projects that will be a sure bet to get you in the Halloween spirit.

The whole family can take a leisurely hayride on the grounds, visit a mad scientist's laboratory where you can make gobs of sticky flesh, take a moonlight walk through a haunted forest, get nose to nose with creepy critters, and for the true dare devils....venture underground into the haunted cavern. Face painting, a spooky story, trick-or-treating and refreshments will round out the evening's activities.

Families, scouts and community groups are welcome to participate. Registration for this event is limited. Fees are $10 per child for members and $15 per child for non-members. Adults are free and are welcome to participate in all the activities. For more information or to register call 516-627-9400 x10 or visit www.smli.org.

Landmark on Main Street's 2009-10 Season Kicks Off in October

Martin Sexton, October 10

Landmark on Main Street is proud to start their 2009-10 Season with this outstanding performer. The New York Times wrote, he "jumps beyond standard fare on the strength of his voice, a blue-eyed soul man's supple instrument."

Christine Lavin, October 11

A smart and funny take on contemporary life make for a one-of-a-kind concert.

Future of the Arts, October 14

While some Long Island's arts organizations are closing their doors in this economy, Conversations will delve into the Future of the Arts, hosted by

Clockwise from left: Martin Sexton, Christine Lavin, Rickie Lee Jones and Laura Savini

WLIW's Laura Savini. Special guest panelists include Roger Tilles and others.

Rickie Lee Jones, October 23

This Grammy-award winner, began her career in 1979 with signature songs like "Chuck-E's in Love." She comes to Landmark for the launch of her fifteenth album.

Other exciting shows include: October 3, Music As You Remember It: Tributes to Some of the 60s & 70s Best Bands; October 17, The Long Island Ballet Theatre presents Tales From The Crypt - A Halloween Ballet.

For more info or to purchase tickets call 747-6444 or visit landmarkonmainstreet.org.
