Port Washington's Main Street Makeover Volunteer to "Clean & Green" Main Street April 4

On Saturday April 4, 2009, over 100 volunteers including families, students, teachers, scouts, parents, landscapers, contractors, and merchants will work together to make new environmental trash receptacles and recycling bins along the route.

If you would like to vol-

"We hope this will provide an opportunity for the community to join with us in helping to help make Port a little cleaner and a little greener."

Residents Board member Doug Wood eight blocks of Main Street (from Port Boulevard to Mackey Avenue) the first "Clean, Green Zone" in Port Washington.

The makeover, a project of Residents For A More Beautiful Port Washington, is co-sponsored by the Town of North Hempstead (TONH) with a host of supporting project partners.

Residents Board members and volunteers will be joined on Saturday by PW Windows, Freitas Landscaping, Schreiber Key Club and Tree Huggers. The TONH will install unteer, it's important that you REGISTER FIRST by calling 767-9151 or email info@pwresidents.org.

The event will begin at 8 am on Saturday morning and will conclude with a ceremony at the train station at 11 am. Volunteers who wish to participate should meet at the Port Washington LIRR station parking lot to receive team assignments, equipment and supplies. If weather is inclement; all activities will be postponed to Sunday, April 5 (8 am - 11 am).

Scouts Come to Aid of Senior Center

When Cub Scout Pack 77 learned that Nassau County was cutting funding for lunches at the Port Washington Senior Citizens Center, they decided to conduct a multi-cub scout family garage sale. The outpouring of offers for donations and volunteering has been incredible. This will be a mega-garage sale that's not to be missed!

The sale will be held on Saturday, April 25 from 9:00 a.m. - 3:00 p.m. at the Senior Citizens Center located at 80 Manorhaven Boulevard. Call 883-6656 for details. Please come for the wonderful bargains, but also to support our community's seniors and help the Cub Scouts gain points towards their achievements.

Red Stocking Revue Celebrates 30 Years!

The 2009 Red Stocking Revue begins its four-day run on Thursday, April 2 at the Paul D. Schreiber High School in Port Washington. The Revue ends on Sunday afternoon, April 5 with a 2 pm matinee performance. The Revue is locally acclaimed and, due to our wonderful community's support, the largest fundraising production by the Port Washington/Manhasset Chapter of Cancer Care. Tickets are $17, Seniors and children (under 12 years of age) $15 at the door. Patron tickets for reserved seating are also available at $30. For more information or to purchase tickets please call 516-883-5762.

Helen's Walk April 26

Enjoy the beauty of Sands Point as you WALK with a purpose - to support people who live without sight and sound.

Join HELEN'S WALK - a 5K/3.1 mile journey through a residential section of Sands Point to support the Helen Keller National Center - the only agency that provides training on a national basis, exclusively to youths and adults who are deaf-blind. Check-in and registration: 8:00 to 9:00 am. Registration is also available online at www.hknc.org
