The choir of St. Stephen's Episcopal Church will present its 10th annual performance of Handel's Messiah.

A 13-piece orchestra will play, and include soloists: Maria Whisenand, soprano; Deborah Berruete-Fuhrman, mezzo soprano; David Reck, tenor; Daniel Klein, bass and Joseph Carucci, baritone. St. Stephen's minister of music, Mark van Schenkshof, will conduct the St. Stephen's choir.

St. Stephen's is located at 9 Carlton Avenue. Admission is free, but space is limited. Please arrive early to ensure getting a seat.

"Make a Child Smile" Annual Toy & Food Drive

Members of the Port Washington Chamber of Commerce, PW Fire Department, and PW Police Benevolent Association are proud to sponsor the 11th Annual Make A Child Smile, Toy Collection for Port Washington children being held through December 15.

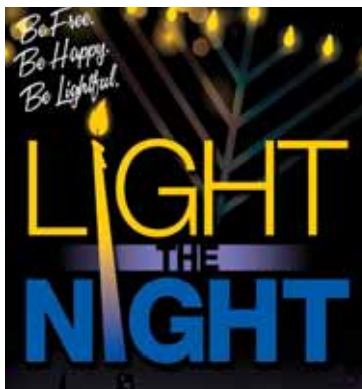

A Food Drive to help Twin Pines Food Pantry will be included. Twin Pines has experienced an increase in clients requesting food, but a decrease in food donations.

New unwrapped toys, non-perishable food items or checks will be collected at over 35 businesses throughout Port, including Ayhan's Mediterranean Marketplace, My Little World Daycare, Parent Resource Center, PW Chamber of Commerce, PW Library, Twin Pines Co-Op, and the Village of Manorhaven Hall. Participating businesses will display a poster in the window. All businesses participating in Port Night Out will also be accepting donations on those dates. Call the 883-6566 for more info.

Menorah Lighting, Dec 1, 6pm

Port Washington's Menorah Lighting Celebration at the LIRR train station. is free of charge and will include traditional hot latkes, gelt and live music.

Chanukah - The Festival of Lights, brings back fond memories of childhood years and serves to renew a sense of identity. The Chanukah lights provide warmth, joy, strength and inspiration. For more information, contact Chabad of Port Washington at 516-767-8672 or visit www.chabadpw.org
