Adults – Take Delux Taxi To School For Just $5

Thanks to an arrangement between the School District and Delux Taxi a special promotional fare of just $5 is available between any residence within the PW School District and Continuing Education classes. "Some adult learners hesitate to enroll in a class because they don't want to drive at night or in bad weather," says Regina Farinaccio, Manager of the Department of Educational and Community Services, "Delux is making it easier for them to enrich their leisure time. What a great service!"

Great classes are still available. Call the Continuing Ed. Office at 767-5470. You should mention this promotional fare when calling to reserve a ride to class with Delux at 883-1900.

Andrea Majer, Executive VP of Delux; Regina Farinaccio; and Robert Howard, VP Sales and Marketing at Delux.

March 13 WinterFest Special Olympics Polar Plunge

Supervisor Jon Kaiman, the North Hempstead Town Board, and the Town's Business & Tourism Development Corporation, invite residents to the annual WinterFest and Polar Plunge at North Hempstead Beach Park, Saturday, March 13. Registration begins at 9:00 a.m. and the plunge takes place at noon.

Brave participants in the 2009 Plunge. Brrrr!

"Besides being a great event to celebrate with family, friends and neighbors and engage in friendly and fun rivalry, the Annual WinterFest and Polar Plunge gives everyone the opportunity to raise funds for a worthy cause," Supervisor Jon Kaiman said. "I look forward to seeing you there."

The event, which benefits the Special Olympics Foundation, features entertainment from WBAB and WBLI, a free breakfast served up by Panera Bread, and children's activities including professional face painting.

In addition to Supervisor Kaiman, plungers also include State Senator Craig Johnson and State Assemblywoman Michelle Schimel.

Individual or teams of plungers can earn fabulous prizes for raising the most money. In the Battle of the Badges, teams from the County Fire Department and the Police Department will compete against each other for bragging rights for who can raise the most funds.

For more information, please log-on to www.specialolympicsny.org.
