

PORT WASHINGTON SEPTEMBER 2010 CALENDAR OF EVENTS

Where to Go and What to Do! www.PWcalendar.com

Party in the Park September 26, 1-4 pm

Residents for a More Beautiful Port Washington host their annual FREE "Party in the Park" on Sunday, September 26, from 1-4pm at Blumenfeld Family Park adjacent to Landmark. If inclement weather the event will be held in the Landmark Gymnasium.

The party is geared towards kids 10-years old and younger and their families. "We are committed to making this year's Party/Carnival bigger than the overwhelming turnout we had last year," said Residents' Director of Development Mariann Dalimonte.

Festivities include carnival games, two bouncers and 3-in-1 obstacle course, inflatable Mini All Star Pro Hoop, Cotton Candy by Frankie's Carnival Time; free ices from Frank's Pizza; Port Washington Fire Truck to explore; Turtle and Lizard to touch from Alley Pond Environmental Center; face painting by Dvora's Art Studio and more.

At 4pm in the Jeanne Rimsky Theater, Landmark will present Jonathan Kruk, "Enviro-Tales." This FREE performance will include story theater skits with children joining Jonathan on stage for a dramatic storytelling adventure!

For more information call the Residents office at 767-9151 or go to www.pwresidents.org.

Annual Cow Neck Country Fair at Sands-Willets House

On Saturday, September 11 from 10 am - 5 pm, the Sands Willet House grounds at 336 Port Washington Blvd., will again be a paradise for kids and grown-ups, too. There will be a petting zoo with baby animals to feed, pony rides, games, face painting, a fire truck to climb aboard, popcorn, cotton candy, and lots more.

Liberty's Call will perform from their award winning musical centered on the Revolutionary War debate. The Sampawams Creek boys will sing railroad songs, and Civil War re-enactors will encamp with fife and drum. There will be art, antiques, crafts, jewelry, a harvest booth, rug-hookers, stamps, tools, tractors, bargain-basement treasures, hot dogs and a tasty hot lunch.

Also on display will be the Society's delightful postcards and old photos of Port Washington from the early 1900s.

For information, call 516-365-9074. (Rain date is Sunday, September 12.)

Sandminers Monument Dedication

A dedication ceremony for the Sandminers Monument will take place Sat. Sept. 25, 11 am at the monument site on West Shore Rd., just south of the Harbor Links Golf Course.

This monument is dedicated to honor and remember the immigrant workers who toiled under perilous conditions. Through their labor, prized "Cow Bay Sand" was barged from Hempstead Harbor to become the concrete that built the skyscrapers, tunnels and bridges of New York City. Many of these miner's descendents became prominent members of the Port Washington community.

The dedication ceremony and reception are free and open to all. An Opera Luncheon at Harbor Links Club House following the dedication ($75pp), features a musical presentation by Maestro Vincent La Selva and the New York Grand Opera Company, and supports the work of the Sandminers Monument, Inc. Contributions from the event will be used to complete the historical graphic panels, memorial walkway and overall project.

For more information call Leo Cimini at 516-883-3826.
