FEBRUARY AT LANDMARK

Feb 1, Campbell Brothers, 8 pm The Campbell Brothers will fill the theater with African-American gospel music made by electric steel guitar. Music like you've never heard that will make you say, "Hallelujah!" The Campbell Brothers play music that until recently was heard only in gospel churches. - The New York Times.

Feb 2, Frances C. Roberts and Company - Music's Most Famous Love Triangle, 8 pm, The beautiful songs of Johannes Brahms, and Robert and Clara Schumann. Soprano Kelley Nassief, and pianist Frances C. Roberts bring to life the passionate music of the Schumanns and Brahms, who was close to them both. Tickets are NOT available through Landmark. Go to www.FrancesCRoberts.com or 631-219-9100.

Feb 8, Lucy Kaplansky, 8 pm Landmark LOVES Lucy! (And you will too!) You'll be treated to old favorites as well as new music as she tours to support her new album Reunion. Hosted by WFUV's John Platt

Step Into an Actor's Shoes: Kate Beckman at PW Library

Port Washington Play Troupe will present their second Spotlight On Theater: Behind-the-Scenes Conversations with Coffee & Confections, on Thurs., Feb. 28, from 7:30 - 9 pm in the Lapham Meeting Room at the PW Library. Admission is free.

The topic will be "Step Into an Actor's Shoes," led by seasoned actor/director and theater educator Kate Beckman. Come behind the scenes for an intimate look at the actor's craft. Discover the skills that an actor develops: how to analyze a script for insights, create a character, and then bring the role to life. There will be opportunities for audience participation.

The evening will conclude with coffee, conversation and sumptuous desserts provided by Blanka's Kitchen, a PW based catering company.

Founded in 1927, Play Troupe is New York State's oldest chartered amateur theater company. For more info email PortWashingtonPlayTroupe@gmail.com, 473-6243 or facebook.com/portwashingtonplaytroupe.

6th Annual Souper Bowl, Feb 2

The PW Chamber of Commerce invites you to come in from the cold and enjoy a warm and tasty lunch at the Sixth annual SOUPER Bowl, Sat., Feb. 2, from noon to 3 pm at Fellowship Hall in the United Methodist Church, 35 Middle Neck Rd., just north of the Village Club of Sands Point entrance.

Many of our wonderful local restaurants and markets donate their best soups for the contest and hope to be voted Port Washington's 2013 SOUPER Bowl Champ. "Buy a Spoon" and become a "taster," to sample two ounces of each of the soups. Then vote for your favorite to determine the 2013 SOUPER Bowl Champ. The winner will receive the "People's Choice Award." A select judges' panel will also be tasting and will select the prestigious "Judges' Choice Award."

Admission is just a $7 "touchdown" for adults and a $3 "field goal" for children under 12. The Chamber will donate a portion of the net proceeds to the Twin Pines Food Pantry and will also be collecting non-perishable food.

There is plenty of free parking. For more information, call the Chamber of Commerce at 883-6566 or email office@pwcoc.org.

Singer/Songwriter Arlon Bennett To Perform at PW Library

On Wed., Feb. 6, 7:30 pm the library will welcome singer/ songwriter Arlon Bennett to the Lapham stage as the first performer in this year's SoundSwap series, hosted by Tony Traguado.

Arlon Bennett's presence in the Folk/Americana scene is continually growing. While accumulating songwriting awards, he has opened for such acts as Glenn Tilbrook (Squeeze), Jill Sobule, and Lesley Gore, and has performed with Livingston Taylor. Arlon was twice selected to perform in the Music2Life showcase, which features America's best songs of social consciousness.

His lyrics to "The Ace in Grace" (from his cd, Fountain of Dreams) were used in the official statue dedication of late tennis champion and humanitarian Arthur Ashe.

There's always something meaningful in Arlon's songs because he recognizes the power of music, and he frequently participates in fundraising efforts for charitable causes. His foot-tapping songs draw chills, laughs, and the contemplative "hmm..." while engaging audiences with an all-American "aw-shucks" charisma. "It's the most rewarding way to communicate," says Arlon, "and I wouldn't have it any other way."

Mar 2, Polar Bear Plunge – Freezin' For A Reason

Help raise money for the athletes of Special Olympics NY Mar. 2, at Freezin' for a Reason, the Ninth Annual Town of North Hempstead Polar Plunge, at NH Beach Park. Registration is from 10 - 11:30 am with the Plunge at Noon.

Last year over 600 Plungers braved the icy waters while spectators giggled with excitement. Don't want to take the Plunge? Stop down, join the festivities and have a cup of hot chocolate.

Special Olympics New York athletes train and compete year-round in 22 sports. It costs $400 to support training and competition for one athlete for one season. Set your Plunge goal at $400 to sponsor an athlete for an entire season! To start a team or join individually, go to www.tinyurl.com/nhpolarplunge2013 or call Kristina Aquilone at 631-254-1465 x10 or kaquilone@nyso.org.

Port Summer Show Planning Meeting, Feb 7

Please join the board of the Port Summer Show in the Lapham room at the PW Library at 7:30 on Feb. 7 to begin planning for this year's show!

The Port Summer Show puts on a high quality musical every summer the first weekend of August. Teens entering seventh grade through graduating seniors are eligible to audition for the cast. Port Washington teenagers also help on the technical crew and play in the pit orchestra. This meeting is both for parents of returning cast members and parents of teens who may be interested in auditioning for the first time. A dedicated team of parent volunteers is also essential to the success of the summer show.

Some of the shows being considered for the Summer 2013 are Hairspray, Meet Me in St. Louis and Legally Blonde. For more information, contact co-presidents, Susan Hoffman at 883-5051 or Elise May at 883-2569.

Science Museum of Long Island

Feb 3, Summer Camp 2013 Open House, 9 am - noon. It's not too early to think about summer camp! Parents and children can meet teachers, preview themes and activities, explore Leeds Pond Preserve, and learn just how much fun it is to be a "junior scientist" at SMLI's Summer Camp. Reserve space by Feb. 3 and save $25 per session per child for most sessions. Main House.

Feb. 15, Winter Wonder Lecture Series 7 - 9 p.m. Join SMLI's Director John T. Tanacredi, Ph.D., for an exclusive screening and discussion of the stunning BBC television program How to Grow a Planet. With spectacular footage shot on Long Island and throughout the world, the program explores the key role the plant kingdom has played in shaping the planet - how grass transformed life in the oceans and triggered the development of human civilization; flowers sculpted the Earth and drove the evolution of all animals; and plants in general harnessed light and created a life-sustaining atmosphere. SMLI Visitor Center. Adults/older children. Admission free/donation suggested. Space limited/reservation suggested.

Feb. 16 Science & Lecture Series, 10 am - noon Join SMLI Director John T. Tanacredi, Ph.D., for the presentation Science Travel: Easter Island, The Land of the Moai, a slide show and discussion featuring SMLI's Earth P.U.L.S.E (People Understanding & Learning About Science Through Education) expedition to Easter Island to explore the secrets of this southeast Pacific Polynesian island. SMLI Visitor Center. Adults/older children. Admission free/donation suggested. Space limited/reservation suggested.
