Fab Library Programs Celebrate Beatles' 50th Anniversary in America!!

It was fifty years ago this month that the Beatles' arrived in America – the event that touched off the musical and social British Invasion. Visit the library for six evenings and afternoons of author visits, multimedia presentations, films and performers.

On Tues., February 4 at 7:30 pm, join New York Times best-selling author Mark Lewisohn for a multimedia presentation centered on his book Tune In - The Beatles: All These Years Vol. 1, which is being hailed as the definitive statement on the story of the four boys from Liverpool who would become the biggest selling group of the 20th century. Rare clips and photos, including a look at the Beatles' many American musical influences, will enhance the discussion.

The fun continues the on Wed., February 5 at 7:30 pm, with an evening of Beatles films, highlighted by the group's first feature, A Hard Day's Night (1964-87 min.). Alun Owen's screenplay successfully reflects a day in the life of the group at the beginning of Beatlemania, and director Richard Lester brilliantly captures the naturally humorous natures of John, Paul, George and Ringo. The evening will open with a few rarely seen Beatle clips, and will close with a Q&A about the film.

Boy Scout Troop 7 Celebrates Its 100th Anniversary!

Since 1914, the young men of Troop 7 have helped the Port Washington Community through good times and tough times. They have served at the Memorial Day Parade, Pride In Port, at Landmark, Nassau Knolls Cemetery, at our senior and rehabilitation centers, our schools and museums, animal shelter, VFW Hall and many other community organizations and events.

The Port Washington community has been there to support the boys of Troop 7 as they grow into fine young citizens. The Troop has produced 20 Eagle Scouts in the last 10 years. An amazing feat when one considers that only 4% of all boys in scouting achieve that rank!

To celebrate the joyous occasion of their 100th Anniversary, the Troop is hosting a gala dinner on Sat., March 1 at the Clubhouse at Harbor Links from 6:30 - 10 pm. Tickets are $100 per person. To purchase tickets, buy a journal ad, or for more information please call Scott Harding at 516-944-3870.

Fab Programs Celebrate Beatles' 50th Anniversary in America!!

shown. Freda Kelly was a shy Liverpool teenager the first time she saw the Beatles perform at the Cavern Club. By the time she had returned to the club for her 180th visit to see 'the boys,' she had been hired by the band's manager, Brian Epstein, to oversee the band's swiftly growing fan club. She would retain that position – one that placed her in the center of the Beatles' inner circle – for over 11 years, beyond the break-up of the group. As the Beatles' devoted secretary and friend, Freda was witness to the evolution – advances and setbacks, breakthroughs and challenges – of the greatest band in history. One of a few documentaries made with the support of the surviving Beatles, Good Ol' Freda is the touching, personal story of a young lady who was fiercely devoted to her coveted position as the guardian of the group's reputation and their vast fan base.

On Sat, February 15 at 2 pm, the cast of the Internet radio show Fab 4 Free 4 All (Mitch Axelrod, Rob Leonard and Tony Traguardo) host "The Beatles Come to America," featuring rare interview and concert footage celebrating the Beatles' arrival in the U.S. on February 7, 1964. A number of local musicians will take the stage for a live performance and Beatles sing-along.

On February 18 at 7:30 p.m., the library's SoundSwap program presents an evening with legendary British Invasion artists Chad Stuart and Jeremy Clyde, better known as Chad and Jeremy. Formed in 1963 the duo quickly became one of the first groups to make it big in America during the British Invasion. After a string of hits that included "Yesterday's Gone," "A Summer Song" and "Willow Weep for Me," they pushed the envelope of psych-folk-rock with such cult classic albums as Of Cabbages and Kings and The Ark. They appeared regularly on afternoon music shows and were featured on prime-time TV shows of the 1960s such as The Dick Van Dyke Show, The Patty Duke Show, and Batman. Acting commitments forced Jeremy Clyde to devote less time to the duo, and Chad and Jeremy spent much of the next thirty years in an on-again off-again musical relationship. Now they're back touring to sold out audiences all over the world. This evening's program promises to be an unforgettable evening of music and stories.

The series concludes on Fri, February 21 at 7:30 pm. with a screening of Robert Zemecki's comic ode to Beatlemania, I Wanna Hold Your Hand.

The Art of Quilting: Fibers, Fabrics Exhibit Extended

The Cow Neck Peninsula Historical Society opened a brand new exhibit: The Art of Quilting: Fibers, Fabrics & Fashion, at the Historical Society Holiday Fair in December. Due to popular demand, the exhibit will be opened on Sundays at 2 pm through February. Tours of the exhibit will be given and admission is $5 per person.

This exciting exhibit features hundreds of years of quilting styles that have shaped our contemporary view of this art form. Over 50 quilts and coverlets from the CNPHS collection will be on display – one of the finest groupings of these textiles on Long Island. Come and see patchwork quilts, a unique trapunto quilt, our flour sack quilt, crazy quilts of velvets and silks, a flag quilt, and our woven coverlets, and hear the stories behind them. Quilts are not used just for warmth, but are also thought of as respected folk art. Besides being a wonderful representation of history and culture, they were also used as maps and told family history.

After taking the tour, stop by the Cow Neck Country Quilt Shop and take a look at an array of quilts and memorabilia for sale. Sands-Willets House at 336 Port Washington Blvd. (1 block south of Uncle Giuseppe's). For more info, go to www.cow-neck.org, www.facebook.com/cnphs, or call 516-365-9074.
