From The Publisher

Is it still Happy New Year?

As we see almost 10% of the New Year in the rear view mirror, we take a minute to quote former New York Mayor, Koch, and ask ourselves: "How am I doing?"

Keeping those resolutions for the New Year is difficult, but are they impossible? Maybe not.

I heard an interesting idea on the subject one day while not doing any of the things I had promised myself...

Attack one resolution at a time. One this month, the second next month, etc.

While I am not crazy enough to tell everyone each of my resolutions, I believe I can share one for February and be reasonably certain it will be accomplished... Maybe you want to join me in this one... I resolved to get more involved in assisting others within the Kiwanis Club and outside the Kiwanis when the occasion presented itself.

Well, January presented the problem and February extends the opportunity. Let's all get behind the efforts to help those who lost so much in the Haven Marina fire.

At least two opportunities are available for all of us: Donate through the Lutheran Church at www.lutheranchurchportwashington.com. And/or attend the program put together by Dave Franklin at the Polish American Hall on February 27.

So, here is a community resolution for February... Make certain we help out the Houseboaters.
