Cinema on the Bay Festival 2015

Cinema on the Bay, presented by Residents For a More Beautiful PW and the Town of N. Hempstead, has become a favorite summer tradition in Port Washington at Sunset Park. What could be more idyllic than bringing lawn chairs, blankets and a picnic dinner (or ordering take out!) to a park along the water on a summer evening?

The first of the series will be Rocky III on Sat., June 20, 8:30 pm, with Burt Young (Paulie) making a special appearance before the movie. In this installment, Rocky (Sylvester Stallone) must regain his fighting spirit as he's trained by his old nemesis, Apollo Creed (Carl Weathers). The film also stars Talia Shire as Adrian and Burgess Meredith as Mickey.

Please contact Lisa Grossman at 767-9151 or lgrossman@pwresidents.org for more info or visit RFMBPW's website at pwresidents.org.

25th Annual Harborfest June 7, 2015

The Port Washington Chamber of Commerce and many other community groups invite everyone to 25th annual HarborFest, on Sunday June 7 from 10 am - 5 pm. The day promises to provide fun and entertainment for the entire family!

Located on the Town Dock, lower Main Street and Sunset Park, this event typically attracts over 12,000 people to our beautiful community to enjoy a variety of events, including a handmade craft fair, Art in the Park, food court, musical entertainment, cruises on the bay, a family fun stage, an environmental information section, children's fun park, a model boat regatta, and a nautical museum exhibit.

PW Farmers' Market Opens June 6

Every Saturday through October, the Port Washington Organic Farmers' Market is held at the Town Dock from 8 am - noon

The market, now in its thirteenth year, is managed by Grassroots Environmental Education and is the place to go for fresh, locally-grown, organic produce and specialty items. It is the only 100% organic farmers' market in New York. East End farmers bring truckloads of fresh vegetables, local bakers offer fantastic breads, cakes and organic coffee, and organic blueberry muffins, eggs, goat cheese and honey are popular with market regulars.

Grassroots also cultivates and manages a small organic farm at the Dodge Family Farm in Port, growing vegetables for the local food bank and for the Farmers' Market.

For info, call Grassroots at 883-0887 or visit their website www.grassrootsinfo.org.

Relay for Life, June 13!

The American Cancer Society's Relay For Life celebrates 14 years in Port! Join Port Washington neighbors and friends as we come together again to Celebrate, Remember & Fight Back on this special night.

Over the last thirteen years, the Port Washington community has raised approximately $1,360,000. In 2015, 70 teams, with nearly 500 participants hope to raise $150,000.

Held on the Schreiber High School track, the Survivor/Caregiver Reception starts at 6 pm, Opening Ceremony at 7 pm, and the Luminaria Lighting Ceremony at about 9 pm. There will be music performances, games, raffles, and at 10 pm, a BBQ hosted by the PW Fire Department.

You don't have to pitch a tent and stay overnight! There are many ways to get involved... join a team, purchase a luminaria or a raffle ticket, donate a raffle item, be a volunteer, walk a few laps or a few miles. Just come and become a part of this hope-filled event.

For more info contact Megan Stewart, megan.stewart@cancer.org call 631-300-3150 or visit www.relayforlife.org/portwashingtonny.

Port Washington Celebrates Gambol 2015!

Schreiber High School's seniors will celebrate their graduation on Thursday, June 25th and celebrate at Gambol 2015 on Friday, June 26th. This year's theme, being kept a secret, promises to be a spectacular event, bringing elements of the party outside to the Red Carpet, and completely transforming the interior of Castle Gould to a whole new level!

Sixty-three years ago, Port parents realized the importance of embracing their children and celebrating the achievement of their high school graduation. Only possible with the support of family and community, the Gambol provides a safe and secure environment in which to do so, right here in town. It is a magical night full of family, friends, celebration and memories to treasure forever! Not many communities can boast of such a wonderful history for their senior proms. It is as unique and special as Port Washington itself.

The annual Community Viewing will be on Friday, June 26th from 3-5pm at Castle Gould at the Sands Point Preserve (there will not be a parking fee for this event) and all are welcome to see the transformation (but no pictures!). Gambol 2015 begins promptly at 9 pm as the first students step on to the Red Carpet. It's like our own bit of Hollywood, right here in Port!

Town of North Hempstead Cuts Ribbon on Hempstead Harbor Shoreline Trail

North Hempstead Town Supervisor Judi Bosworth, the Town Board, various elected officials and community groups joined to officially open the newly-expanded Hempstead Harbor Shoreline Trail. The trail which begins at North Hempstead Beach Park and runs south adjacent to West Shore Road, was previously one quarter-mile long from May Newburger Cove to the first overlook, but has now been expanded by one mile, making it 1.25 miles long.

This is the culmination of nearly a decade of applying for grant funding and acquiring land to make the trail's expansion a reality. Construction on the project began in January 2014 and was completed by Galvin Brothers, with the engineering done by GEI Consultants.

"It is so thrilling to have our very own nature trail right here in North Hempstead where residents can walk, jog or hike," said Supervisor Bosworth, who has made revitalization of the waterfront one of her top priorities. "This trail expansion is a wonderful start to what I hope will be a continuing effort to develop our waterfront thoughtfully. I look forward to continuing to work with all levels of government and our environmentally-minded community groups as we strive to make Hempstead Harbor one of the most exciting waterfront destinations on Long Island."

The meandering path is lined with benches, native plants and a bridge.

Sections of the trail are handicapped accessible. The Hempstead Harbor Protection Committee (HHPC) provided signs about nature and wildlife that are placed at overlook points.

Eric Swenson, Executive Director of the HHPC said, "Shoreline trails provide an excellent and easy way for the public to access and enjoy their waterfronts. Hempstead Harbor is fortunate not only to have a good portion of its shores publically-owned, but to have several waterfront trails."

Carol DiPaolo, Programs Director of the Coalition to Save Hempstead Harbor, said "The completion of the trail following the wetlands restoration on the harbor's western shore marks another outstanding improvement for Hempstead Harbor. The trail provides a great educational opportunity by affording community residents access to the water's edge so they can observe the shore birds and marine life that depend on the harbor for their habitat."

The cost of the trail was completed with the aid of a $100,000 grant from the 2004 Nassau County Bond Act and a $271,000 grant from NY State Parks. "I am pleased that the County has been able to secure funding to assist with this project," Legislator Delia DeRiggi-Whitton said. "There are few places more beautiful to walk along than Hempstead Harbor's shoreline. I am confident that many people will enjoy

An Evening at the Library with Author, Colm Tóibín

On Thursday, June 11 at 7:30 pm, the Friends of the Library welcomes one of contemporary literature's most critically acclaimed and beloved authors. Colm Tóibín will sit for an exclusive, wide-ranging interview and will discuss his latest novel, Nora Webster.

Nora Webster is a magnificent, instant New York Times bestseller set in Ireland, about a fiercely compelling young widow and mother of four, navigating grief and fear, struggling for hope.

Colm Tóibín is the author of eight novels, including The Blackwater Lightship, The Master, Brooklyn and The Testament of Mary, as well as two short story collections and works of non-fiction and literary criticism. He has won the Los Angeles Times Book Prize and the Costa Book Award, and has twice been shortlisted for the Man Booker Prize. Born in Enniscorthy, Ireland, Tóibín currently resides in Dublin and New York.

Copies of Nora Webster will be available for purchase and signing.

"A high-wire act of an eighth novel. Tóibín's radical restraint elevates what might have been a familiar tale of grief and survival into a realm of heightened inquiry. The result is a luminous, elliptical novel in which everyday life manages, in moments, to approach the mystical."

— Jennifer Egan, The New York Times Book Review

"Miraculous... a strikingly restrained novel about a woman awakening from grief and discovering her own space, her own will. Extraordinary... [Tóibín] portrays Nora with tremendous sympathy and understanding."

— Ron Charles, The Washington Post

From The Publisher

This was the response when an anthropology instructor asked a student to put into his own words a rather longwinded description of how leaders get to be known, or not known.

I was reminded of this when

He who doesn't toot his own horn, doesn't get it tooted...

we received a copy of a letter sent to a publication about what the author viewed as a gross lack of coverage at an event. In other words they did not get the coverage they felt was their due.

For everyone who wants editorial coverage and those who feel their favorite vendor, club, organization, etc. should get coverage, let me provide a couple of hints on getting it done.

Most publications have a fraction of the editorial staff prevalent just a few years ago... Reporters and editors are stretched about as thin as possible and are often reduced to simply taking in copy and rerunning it. This isn't the best scenario, but it is accurate... and it provides a great opportunity for those desiring editorial coverage.

Simply, make certain you know what the focus coverage of your target publication. Then provide your article in an electronic file, preferably with a Hi-res photo, illustration or logo (picking a photo off the web doesn't work). An editor working on a deadline will love it and you have a much better chance of coverage. Try to avoid sending a flyer, window poster, or inside newsletter article.

These all require time and effort and diminish your chances of accurate coverage. You should also write your article in the third person so it doesn't look like a puff piece (quotes in quotes can make it a bit more personal).

As we put this issue of the Port Washington Calendar together, we are surprised at the lack of articles received from HarborFest Participants. Dozens of booths being taken by both commercial and not for profits, and we have very little to tell attendees about your booth, your offerings, or the value of stopping by your booth.

Finally, if you find all of this difficult and/or complicated, just refer back to the headline of this column.

A standing ovation to over 40 performances that have graced our stage this past season.

Stop Throwing Out Pollutants (S.T.O.P.) Program June 20

9:30 am - 3 pm

North Hempstead Beach Park

The S.T.O.P. (Stop Throwing Out Pollutants) program offered on various days throughout the year offers residents of North Hempstead the opportunity to dispose of their household hazardous waste in an environmentally friendly manner. Many people do not realize that ordinary household products, such as aerosols and cleaners, can be corrosive, explosive, or toxic if mixed indiscriminately with regular household garbage. Take an extra moment to check labels for warnings, and take advantage of the S.T.O.P. dates to ensure safe disposal.

The ToNH also offers residents safe record shredding while you wait and watch at no additional cost at S.T.O.P. events. For more information, please call 311 or go to <http://bit.ly/1BrZ9IT> for the full list of materials accepted.

Sands Point Preserve in June: Bee-Whispering, Navigation and Pond Exploration

June is busy with science and nature activities at Sands Point Preserve. Children and their caregivers can learn all about fascinating honeybees, navigating the great outdoors and pond exploration this month.

The Bee-Whispering program is designed for curious novices and future bee keepers alike - for adults and children age six and older accompanied by an adult. The programs are: Session I – Bee Biology and Wake Up The Hive, June 7, 11 am - 1 pm; Session II – Beekeeping Techniques and Maintenance, July 12; and Session III – Honey Harvest, August 16. Attend one or all dates. Bee Whispering offers interactive presentations and hands-on experience at the hives. Participants will learn about honeybees' beneficial impact in our lives and the effect of the changing environment on their populations locally and around the world.

Navigate the Great Outdoors at the Preserve on Sunday, June 14, 11 am - 1 pm. There will be compasses to loan out or use your smartphone. Course directions (provided) and your compass will allow you to navigate the course. Gather information to solve a course question. Ages 6 and up.

Pond Exploration will be Saturday, June 20, 11 am or 12 pm. The freshwater pond is home to birds, reptiles, amphibians, mammals and insects that are particularly active in summer. We'll explore the pond with nets, buckets and magnifying lenses. For a close-up view, bring a clean, white take-out container (there are some to share). Wear shoes, sneakers or boots that can get muddy!

Admission to each program is $15 per car or $5 per car with Annual Pass. Preregistration is required. Please email your name, preferred session start time, and the number of adults and children (with their ages) to info@friendsspp.org. For info or to purchase a 2015 Annual Pass see www.TheSandsPointPreserve.com, call 571-7901 or visit the Gate House at 127 Middle Neck Road, Sands Point. Open daily from 8 am - 6 pm through
