It's Hijinks On The High Seas as Schreiber HS presents Cole Porter's Anything Goes

"It's Delightful... It's Delicious... It's De-lovely!"

– That's what everyone will be singing after seeing Schreiber HS's production of Cole Porter's classic 1930s musical, Anything Goes, March 26 - March 29.

Romance is in the air on the ocean liner SS American - but it's far from smooth sailing for the passengers.

There are nonstop laughs, spectacular dance numbers and many unforgettable songs including "Anything Goes," "You're the Top," "Friendship," and "It's De-Lovely."

This production involves the efforts of over 100 students and staff and is under the direction of Ms. Lauren

Be a Guest of the Guggenheims at Hempstead House at Sands Point Preserve

Friends of the Sands Point Preserve's historic Hempstead House will be the setting of a "Dinner Party at the Guggenheims" on March 21 at 7 p.m., that will explore the festive spirit and lavish entertainment of the Guggenheims at their Gold Coast estate.

Theater-goers will time-travel back to the speakeasy era of the 1920s through the 1940s. The evening will feature a live orchestra in the Palm Court, a show by Tiger/Fried Productions, hors d'oeuvres in the Palm Court, a sit-down gourmet dinner (catered by Philip Stone), including dessert with the performers, dancing and an open bar.

Festive attire is encouraged, and guests will have an opportunity to interact with members of the Guggenheim family and will have a choice of dining in the dining room, billiard room or library. Learn about the Guggenheim legacy from several of the family members who will be your hosts for the evening.

"It is always a pleasure to open up Hempstead House, where the Guggenheims welcomed captains of industry and world leaders at their many parties," said Jean-Marie Posner, Executive Director of Friends of Sands Point Preserve.

Tickets are $110 per person and may be purchased at www.TheSandsPointPreserve.com, by phone 571-7904, and at the Gate House, open daily 8 am - 5 pm at 127 Middle Neck Road in Sands Point.

From The Publisher

A Bold Request for You to Shop and Dine Locally.

Yes, according to the calendar, spring happens on the 20th of this month. Let's hope the weatherman and calendar are in sync.

There is no question that this has been a tough winter on all of us, but now it is time to recoup some of the shortfall we have experienced.

As residents, we simply haven't had the energy, courage or what have you to venture out for more than the essentials. Our restaurants and shops have worked hard to stay open, ready to serve less customers than usual, pay the staff, rent and taxes.

When the first snowstorms and extreme cold first hit, we were encouraged by the quick plowing and sanding but we would be less than honest if we did not credit some of the diminished business along Main and Port Blvd. to the total lack of follow through. Yes it was extreme weather, but looking around at neighboring communities, it doesn't look like it was impossible to address.

We are writing this on the 27th of February and on Main Street there is still 8-10 feet of packed ice from the curb out into the street.

Yes, the merchants can be, and are, upset over this. But until you, the shoppers and diners who cannot mount the piles of snow and ice to park and shop, express your concern for safety, nothing will happen. Maybe a call to 311? Or drop a note to me and I will forward all I receive.

When you read this, all of the problem may have disappeared, except for the loss of business our local merchants have experienced. So, here's the plan, make one extra trip to a local merchant and maybe enjoy one more dining out experience this month.

And, let's hope the powers that be remember history and a guy named Mayor Lindsey.

Dave Allen

Community Synagogue Hosts "Hidden in Holland"

The Community Synagogue will host a unique program entitled "Hidden in Holland, An Iconic Victim and a Fortunate Survivor," on Wed., March 11, at 7:30 pm at the Community Synagogue

This Holocaust program includes an informational presentation about Anne Frank, with excerpts from her diary, presented by Gloria Glantz, who was a Hidden Child in Poland. Leo Ullman, fortunate Holocaust survivor, prominent speaker, and author shares stories of how he and his family survived the harsh conditions of German occupation. Ullman tells of courage and fear from his time living in secrecy and reflects on how his childhood in Nazi-occupied Holland shaped his life. Ullman explores his story's similarities to Anne Frank's and his connection to the diary.

This program is presented by Chaverim (The Community Synagogue's Senior Friendship Group). The Community Synagogue is located at 160 Middle Neck Road. There is no fee for this program. For more information contact Gloria Glantz, gglantz@optonline.net, 883-0815 or Evie Schonbrun, evieschonbrun@gmail.com, 767-0599.

Cupcakes at Soundview Cinemas, March 17

The Elliman Film Series at Soundview Cinemas, 7 Soundview Market Place, sponsored by Douglas Elliman Real Estate, returns for a second season!

Tues., March 17, the charming comedy Cupcakes, (2013, 90 min. In Hebrew w/English subtitles) directed by Eytan Fox, will screen. Set in contemporary Tel Aviv, six friends gather to watch the Universong competition. They jokingly compose "A Song for Anat," and are surprised when it is chosen as an entry for next year's competition. Starring a who's who in contemporary Israeli film, television and music, Cupcakes is, in Fox's words, "about fun and games and music and romance and happy endings. This is something to sweeten life, for myself and the audience."

The evening will include a Q&A with film industry professionals. There are three more evenings in the series on April 14, May 12, and June 9 with films to be announced.

Subscriptions to the series are available on the website at www.goldcoastfilmfestival.org. Subscriptions include priority seating and movie night discounts at local restaurants.

Individual tickets $15 ($10 for students – please call for student rate), or $20 at the door. Doors open at 7 pm for subscribers and 7:15 pm for individual ticket holders.
