The goal of the Port Summer Show is to engage, educate and bring the excitement of all aspects of musical theater production to Port Washington teens, grades 7 - 12. By producing top-quality performances, professionally directed, choreographed and conducted, we offer this diverse group of teens a safe and educational space for the summer while enriching the community through the arts.

What Did You Do on Your Summer Vacation?

Dave Allen

Maybe a better question is "Did you have a summer vacation?" My guess is that most of us found a way to, at least, do something different during this traditional 'vacation' time.

I talked with a lady who was delighted with a camping trip she and her family made. As I am from the Midwest (you know, where the square states with all those Indian names are), I asked where she had gone for this 'roughing it' trip... Montauk!.. I am certain it was great, but a far cry from those trips I made in a previous life to such places as Mountain Home, Arkansas; Cuba, Missouri; Coledale, Colorado or the Diamond Guest Ranch in Chugwater, Wyoming. But, the good news for her and her family is they got away from the ordinary for a fixed bit of time. Nice.

These annual retreats need not always take the form of traditional recreation, sometimes we have an opportunity to learn a new trade, hobby or skill. That is very much what we did this summer. After dipping our proverbial toes into the promotional, branded products marketplace, we took a number of opportunities to get to know the people and organizations that help drive this $20 billion business.

To do this we visited both trade show events and individual plants. The results were quite revealing and fun.

So, whatever your choices for the summer months, we hope you had a great time and are all charged up for fall and all that goes with it.

You know... and it is now my pleasure to remind you to shop local for back to school clothes and 'stuff', all the hardware items you need in preparation for winter, pool supplies and auto fixes.

While you are shopping local, do not forget to eat local... we have about 100 restaurants and eateries, ready willing and delicious.

related activities such as tie-dyeing, simple printmaking, painting, clay hand-building and more, is a way for parents to meet instructors and familiarize themselves with The Art Guild. The projects will be geared for ages 5 - 12. This event is made possible with a grant from New York State Council on the Arts administered by The Huntington Arts Council, Inc.

"Our art classes for kids are fun and educational," said Susan Herbst, Associate Executive Director. "Our teachers are amazing professionals who come up with creative projects during classes held year round. We'd like to reach out to parents, schools and the community to let them know that we offer fun, reasonably priced art classes for students of all ages - from kindergarten through high school, as well as college and beyond."

The Art Guild is located at Nassau County's historic Elderfields Preserve, 200 Port Washington Blvd., Manhasset. For more info 304-5797, email info@theartguild.org, or www.TheArtGuild.org. The Art Guild is a not-for-profit 501c3 organization.
