Mr. John Belanich 2018 Citizen of the Year

The Community Chest of Port Washington invites the public to attend an Awards Ceremony honoring the 2018 Citizen of the Year, Mr. John Belanich on April 16, 7:30pm, at the Port Washington Public Library. The event is free and open to the public.

For more than 45 years, John has been quietly devoted to the betterment of our community and to the welfare of Port Washington residents in need. He had been a member of the St. Vincent de Paul Society (St. Peter of Alcantara conference) for 45 years, Please join us and show your appreciation for all he has done for the residents of our town. Mr. Belanich is the 46th recipient of the Citizen of the Year award. His name, along with that of the other 45 honorees, is engraved on the Citizen of the Year Obelisk on permanent display at the Port Washington Public Library.

In honor of Mr. Belanich and to raise money for the many organizations the Community Chest helps, we prepare a Citizen of the Year Journal. To RSVP or to purchase an ad in the journal, call 767-2121.

Helen's Run Walk 2018, Sunday April 22 A 5K Run/Walk to support people who are Deaf-Blind

Join Helen Keller National Center, rain or shine, on Sunday, April 22 for a 5K Run/Walk through beautiful Sands Point, and help raise funds for programs and services that benefit people who have a combined vision and hearing loss. A great way to celebrate Earth Day too! The Run/Walk starts at Sands Point Preserve, 127 Middle Neck Road, Sands Point at 9:30 am (check in 7:45 - 9:00 am).

If you cannot attend, you can support Helen's Run/Walk from anywhere in the country by registering as a "Virtual Walker!" You can also participate by sponsoring a team and/or participant, or becoming a sponsor.

All proceeds from Helen's Run/Walk 2018 will allow HKNC to provide the vital technology, resources and training HKNC's students need to live and work in their community of choice. It will also ensure Helen Keller National Center's continued growth as a national leader in serving people who live with a combined vision and hearing loss.

Award categories include: First overall male and female finishers, first physically challenged male and female finishers.

Register now* and HKNC will be well on the way to achieving its goal of raising $70,000! For more info, contact Deborah Rodriguez at 718-522-2122, x2204 or via email at drodriguez@helenkeller.org or go to the website www.helenkeller.org.

*Register before April 5 to secure a t-shirt. (T-shirts are not guaranteed for same-day registration. T-shirts are not available to Virtual Walkers.)

4/8 Red Molly with special guest Ellis Paul, 7 pm If one word describes Red Molly's music, that word is joyous. Their brilliantly wrought a capella tunes are love letters to the art of the vocal blend, and their innovative instrumentation is perfectly suited for foot stomping bluegrass-tinged barn-burners and heart-felt ballads alike.

dhol - the Indian double-headed drum played slung over the shoulder that provides bhanga with its heartbeat. NPR calls Red Baraat "the best party band in years."

4/14 Laura Benanti with Linda Benanti: The Story Goes On, 8 pm Join Tony Award-winner Laura Benanti and her mother Linda Benanti on a musical journey through the special relationship between a mother and daughter.

4/15 World Festival 2018, 1 - 5 pm Landmark proudly partners with PW Public Library to present a World Festival. Admission is free to all events in this festival which will take place on both sides of Main Street. The festival will celebrate the many cultures represented in our community with music, dance, crafts and cuisines. Check website for more info.

4/20 Second City: Look Both Ways Before Talking, 8 pm Tired of looking over your shoulder before telling a funny story that might upset grandpa? Or are you still rebounding from that joke he told at your wedding? Why

Are You Too Busy?

Dave Allen

During a recent discussion with a friendly customer I brought up the overall problem of communicating in today's hyperactive atmosphere. My thought was that there were so many messages hitting all of us 24/7, we just cannot keep up and/or react when we should, could or want to.

I read recently that we are bombarded with something like 3000 messages each day, including: email, text, snail mail, newspapers, TV, radio, outdoor boards and more.

Maybe all of that is true, but my friend had another take on the question. He contends everyone is so busy managing their business and/or personal lives that they simply forego the niceties of responding to Birthday and other good wishes, and other opportunities that could ultimately be of benefit.

They (we) are just too busy.

I do not know the solution, but his contention did make me pause and consider a couple of long distance friends who never miss sending a card or other good wishes (In writing, of course). These notes always make me feel good and I just bet they do the same for the senders.

Yes, in these days of 24/7 communication, helicopter parents, etc., it might just be worthwhile to set aside a specific time to think and review what is important. It could be a specific time each day, each week, etc. Or even something as simple as a friend manages to do. His work demands he be available day and night... so he sets aside one day a year for himself and simply says "I don't work on my Birthday."

I did and I won't in the future.

The Art Guild's Going Green Exhibition Honors Myra Fox

The Art Guild invites the public to view Going Green, A Juried Competition and Exhibition from Sat., March 31 through Sun., April 29. Gallery hours are Saturdays and Sundays from 1-5 pm or by appointment. An Artists' Reception and Awards Ceremony will be held on Sun., April 8, from 3-5 pm at The Art Guild's home, Elderfields Preserve, 200 PW Blvd., Manhasset. Both the gallery and the reception are free and open to the public.

The exhibit, featuring 48 artworks by 39 artists, includes an eclectic assortment of work ranging from a fishing trawler made from recycled cardboard to paintings depicting the beauty of earth from lush green forests to the deepest oceans.

This exhibit honors the late Myra Fox, a beloved member of The Art Guild, and celebrates Earth Day. A committed environmentalist, Myra was happiest when her hands were dirty – either with paint or in her garden. The Art Guild will exhibit several of her paintings in the library gallery.

The juror-of-awards for this exhibit is Marsha Tarlow, owner of the Roslyn Village Gallery which featured a large exhibit of Myra Fox's work in 2017.

A wide range of workshops are now registering including a one-day Cellphone Photography Workshop with Howard Rose, on April 28.

For more information please call 304-5797 or visit the website: www.TheArtGuild.org.
