ture of the house and the collections on display. The Thomas Dodge Homestead offers house tours on the fourth Sunday through September. Tours begin at 2 pm sharp and include viewings of the house, grounds, and the unique three-seater outhouse!

The annual Dodge Homestead Spring Fling takes place on June 10, 1 - 5pm. The Spring Fling gives visitors the opportunity to tour the Thomas Dodge Homestead (c. 1721), and its grounds, learn about the Dodge honeybees from the bee keeper, check out the newly planted colonial vegetable garden, sing along with The Front Porch Players, and more. There will be our honey, baked goods, jewelry, and attic treasures for sale. Rain or shine!

Save the date! For the first time ever, the CNPHS has teamed up with the Vintage Flathead Timing Association to create Wheels Through Time – an Antique Car Hill Climb, and Classic Car Show on June 24, 9am - 4pm. In the morning is the Antique Car Hill Climb, and event popular in the 1920s, '30s and '40s. Classic (pre-1940) cars assemble at Hempstead Harbor Beach Park and are timed racing up the hill, while onlookers cheer. At noon, a parade of antique cars will head over to the Sands-Willets House, joining some 'newer' antiques (through the 1970s) for a classic car show, with live music by the CNPHS's house band The Front Porch Players, tours of the Sands-Willets house, and more. Free admission to the general public. Got an antique car to enter in the Hill Climb or a classic car you'd like to show? Visit the website, www.cowneck.org, for more information.

So Much Happening, Where Do We Start?

Dave Allen

With this issue we begin our 11th year of publishing the Port Washington Calendar. It is hard to believe we introduced this idea to the community at HarborFest 2008. The Calendar was based on the idea that Port Washington had so many events, meetings and happenings that it was difficult for even the most diligent citizens to remember the ones they wished to participate in, let alone all the others.

On page 5 of this issue we feature a number of the local merchants who 'bought' into the whole idea and made the project worthwhile. I would be remiss if I did not mention Hal, James, Suzie and Marie who worked in so many ways to put the magazine together.

The Calendar is simply a reflection of the spirit of Port. We easily recognize the merchants, civic and not for profit organizations at HarborFest who lend time and energy to support the community. Less visible are the hundreds of individuals and businesses who provide behind the scenes contributions.

So, I will take this opportunity to highlight just one group.

Coinciding with HarborFest, the Twin Pines Community Charitable Thrift Store has reopened. I think you will be impressed with the rejuvenation.

This total makeover was made possible by financial support from the Community Chest, The Dejana Family Foundation, an anonymous philanthropist and a couple dozen dedicated, hard working volunteers.

They cleaned up, cleaned out, redid and did again until everyone's head was spinning. The fact is these people represent just a few of the hundreds of volunteers who work for the good of Port – all year around.

So when you stop by the Thrift Shop in the Community Chest Building, say "Hello," and think about how many make Port Great!

awareness of the need to preserve and protect our waterfront and environment. It has grown into a major Long Island festival on the shores and in the waters of Manhasset Bay.

HarborFest offers all day fun for the whole family. Visitors can go out on the bay aboard the schooner SoundWaters or the Port Washington Water Taxi. The more adventurous can go kayaking and paddle boarding. A big HarborFest attraction is the craft fair with 90 vendors lining lower Main Street. The Children's Fun Park has activities to keep the young ones busy and happy all day: a stage with a talent show and entertainment just for children, carnival games, crafts, hands-on science fun, sports, a Treasure Hunt and the model boat regatta. Another attraction is the Port Washington Fire Department's Fire Boat which will have demonstrations during the day. The Enviro-Expo is a prominent part of every HarborFest, with fascinating and educational exhibits by many Long Island organizations. This year's school environmental program is "Be A Friend To A Tree." The program is organized and taught by Patti Wood of Grassroots Environmental Education.

The Fabulous Food Court offers gourmet selections from Port's finest restaurants and popular and delicious festival food.

Our Beautiful Bay." Art in the Park with The Art Guild of Port Washington is back with beautiful displays and free art workshops. Of course, many wonderful merchants and organizations have booths on the dock and the HarborFest Fabulous Food Court offers gourmet selections from Port's finest restaurants, as well as popular and delicious festival food.

Returning this year will be sports contests on the PAL basketball court and baseball field, and free tours by launch of the Manhasset Bay Yacht Club.

There is something for everyone at HarborFest, so come early, come hungry and plan to spend the day! For more information, call 883-6566 or email office@pwcoc.org.

Even travelling to and from the festival is fun with free rides on the BID trolley. Entertainment at the Tugboat is provided by the nautical singing group, "Stout" and performances by the cast of the Red Stocking Revue, World Tae Kwon Do Academy, Harmony Sky, and others.

The "Pride of Cow Bay Tugboat" nautical museum will unveil a new exhibit of photos by Les Cuneo, "Preserve

Among Our Firsts

During HarborFest 2008, the Port Washington Calendar was introduced. It was simply an idea for a restaurant placemat that "grew." Shortly after the Chambers' successful first Souper Bowl, Hal Linden along with the Mainly Marketing staff began knocking on doors and gathering information for the first issue.

While there is not a shortage of places local merchants can invest their branding dollars, many took a chance and helped the PW Calendar get off the ground.

While many businesses have come and gone, we recognize and appreciate those shown below who were among our 'firsts.'
