PortFest, Saturday, May 19 at Schreiber High School

Celebrate the arts and the creative spirit of Port Washington at HEARTS' annual PortFest event, taking place Saturday, May 19, 2018 from 11am to 4pm on the Schreiber High School Campus! This annual springtime tradition is a fun, family-friendly community festival bringing together music, arts, dance, theater and more!

PortFest 2018 puts a spotlight on the amazing arts in Port Washington, featuring live music by local bands and musicians, performances by student groups (including a reprise of selections from this year's school musicals, The Little Mermaid and Seussical), dance performances, interactive music and hands-on art experiences, artist exhibitions and live art demonstrations, an amazing silent auction with exciting prizes, and delicious food from local trucks and vendors.

PortFest is presented and produced by HEARTS of Port Washington, a local non-profit dedicated to enriching the arts in our community and public schools. This annual event raises significant funds for new creative arts grants and programs in support of students in Port Washington's school districts. For a complete schedule of events and more information, go to pwportfest.org.

Memorial Day Commemoration & Fireworks, Sat., May 26

The Memorial Day Fireworks and Commemoration Ceremony will be held at North Hempstead Beach Park on Sat., May 26 at 6 pm, with fireworks starting at dusk. This year's event will also feature music by Desert Highway, an Eagles Tribute Band. Parking fee $10 (FREE parking for veterans with ToNH pass). For more information go to northhempstead.com or call 311.

Memorial Day Parade & Ceremony Mon., May 28, 10 am

The parade starts on PW Blvd. and continues down Main St. to the John Philip Sousa Memorial Bandshell in Sunset Park. The Chamber of Commerce will be giving away flags to people along the parade route before the parade starts.

7th Annual Lauri Strauss Leukemia Foundation Bike Tour/Bay Walk, Sunday, May 20

The 7th annual Lauri Strauss Leukemia Foundation Ride for Research Bike Tour will take place on Sunday, May 20. This ride or walk (not a race) helps to raise money for research leading to a cure for leukemia, lymphoma, Hodgkins disease, myeloma and allied cancers. The event is in memory of Lauri Strauss who succumbed to acute myelogenous leukemia at the age of 26.

Join as an individual, or as a team with friends, family or co-workers. There are four options: 3.3-mile ride, 14-mile ride, 21-mile ride and a three mile walk. Please visit the website for walk or ride start times and locations. Free T-shirts, refreshments and raffle ticket (while supplies last) for participants. Additional raffle tickets can be purchased during the event.

There will also be a special on-site Bone Marrow

ToNH Senior Recognition Luncheon

Each year the Town of North Hempstead hosts a Senior Recognition Luncheon. This luncheon is a celebration to honor seniors who give tirelessly to help make the Town of North Hempstead one of the best places to live and retire. This year the luncheon will be on Wednesday, May 23 at Harbor Links Golf Course.

The honoree this year is Joyce Kinney. Joyce became a member in January and from day one has been helping the Center in any way she can. Whether it be cleaning out a closet, reorganizing one of our rooms, or simply writing an inspirational quote on our blackboard. She has done nothing but inspire our members and take part in making our Center the best that it could be.

Please come out to support and recognize Joyce. The luncheon is $30 per person. Please contact PWSC's Executive Director, Linda Livio if you are interested in attending: pwseniorcenter@gmail.com or call 883-6656.

Stout performs at Harborfest

The Port Washington Chamber of Commerce will celebrate the 28th HarborFest Dock Day and Craft Fair on Sunday, June 3, 2018. The mission of HarborFest is to celebrate our nautical heritage and to increase public awareness of the need to preserve and protect our waterfront and environment. It has grown into a major Long Island festival on the shores and in the waters of Manhasset Bay.

HarborFest offers all day fun for the whole family. Visitors can go out Rules, What Rules? And Whose Rules?

Dave Allen

We made a few notes from a recent issue of Newsday, they included: Trump/Cohen (lack of) client privilege, Cosby Guilty, Korea agreed to something, Mangano et. al. – Agreements, Jay Jacobs 10 year camp, now in violation, Nixon/Cuomo – who's lying? (Both?), NIFA Pay Freeze fight, US Constitution Obligation of Contracts Clause.

Wow! What a great array of sins, violations, half truths and more. This set me on a bit of a tirade about rules (honesty and what does a contract mean? can be addressed in a later column).

We each make an effort to train our kids to 'follow the rules' or, do we?

A trip through Port could be titled "What rules do you break regularly?"

- U turns on Main Street?
- Speed limits in Town ie: along Port Boulevard?
- Double parking for just a minute?
- OK to speed through town if it's to catch the train?
- By the Post Office, park on the crosswalks? Park in the Handicap spot?
- Roll through any and all stop signs, especially by Louie's?
- Checking your emails at a traffic light? (until someone behind you "honks"?)
- Picking up the cell phone call for just a minute while driving?

The disturbing fact about each of these 'frequently broken' rules is that when we do them, it seems ok, when 'the other guy' does them it isn't ok.

Cheers!

Dave Allen

on the bay aboard the schooner SoundWaters or the Port Washington Water Taxi. The more adventurous can go kayaking and paddle boarding. A big HarborFest attraction is the craft fair with 90 vendors lining lower Main Street. The Children's Fun Park has activities to keep the young ones busy and happy all day: a stage with a talent show and entertainment just for children, carnival games, crafts, hands-on science fun, sports, a Treasure Hunt and the model boat regatta. Another attraction is the Port Washington Fire Department's Fire Boat which will have demonstrations during the day. The Enviro-Expo is a prominent part of every HarborFest, with fascinating and educational exhibits by many Long Island organizations. This year's school environmental program is "Be A Friend To A Tree." The program is organized and taught by Patti Wood of Grassroots Environmental Education.

Even travelling to and from the festival is fun with free rides on the BID trolley. Entertainment at the Tugboat is provided by the nautical singing group, "Stout" and performances by the cast of the Red Stocking Revue, World Tae Kwon Do Academy, Harmony Sky, and others.

The "Pride of Cow Bay Tugboat" nautical museum will unveil a new exhibit of photos by Les Cuneo, "Preserve Our Beautiful Bay." Art in the Park with The Art Guild of Port Washington is back with beautiful displays and free art workshops. Of course, many wonderful merchants and organizations have booths on the dock and the HarborFest Fabulous Food Court offers gourmet selections from Port's finest restaurants, as well as popular and delicious festival food.

Returning this year will be sports contests on the PAL basketball court and baseball field, and free tours by launch of the Manhasset Bay Yacht Club.

There is something for everyone at HarborFest, so come early, come hungry and plan to spend the day! For more information, call 883-6566 or email office@pwcoc.org.

The Art Guild offers free art workshops at Art In The Park during HarborFest.

local residents with day jobs who also love to BBQ. They will be competing for the coveted title of BBQ Champion of Port Washington as well as the Karmacue People's Choice Champion. The People's Choice champ is voted on by you and other attendees. Vote early and often as the People's Choice food will run out fast.

Food from local restaurants will also be available all day. This year's restaurants include Yummy Gyro, Bare Burger, Ralph's Italian Ices and Schmear Bakery.

Keep your kids busy with crafts from Soulshine Art Studio and Initial Stop. Live music all day by HatTrixx, Chuck Idol & Friends, and Bach2Rock.
