'Bark in the Park' Fundraiser & Dog Run Grand Opening, Oct. 8

The annual 'Bark in the Park' benefit for the ToNH Animal Shelter and The Shelter Connection takes place at the Sands Point Preserve's new dog run on Mon., Oct. 8 at 11 am-3 pm (rain date Oct. 13). Sponsored by Leslie's

Leashes, a Port-based dog walking and pet sitting company, the fundraiser features raffles and prizes. All dog items, food, treats, or monetary donations are welcome.

Dog & their owners are always welcome at the Sands Point Preserve, provided the dogs are kept on a leash at all times. The new dog run enclosure will provide safe, separate spaces for large and small dogs to play and socialize off leash, with owners supervising. Located on the Great Lawn, the run is 100-square-feet with a special chambered entrance for pets and their owners.

Bark in the Park is also an opportunity to give back to our animal community through donations to The Shelter Connection and ToNH Shelter. Volunteers are professionally trained and fundraising efforts support many shelter improvement programs such as Mend-a-Paw. The Shelter Connection's mission is to improve the quality of the life for the homeless dogs by increasing adoptions through training and socialization and through educational outreach.

The preserve is located at 127 Middle Neck Road. For more info: 571-7901 or sandspointpreserveconservancy.org.

Here Comes the Final Quarter of 2018!

Dave Allen

The boats are leaving their moorings; many of the tourists are finding other places to eat. Many locals are preparing for their winter flight south (if they can get through the Carolinas on I 95). And most of us are right here in Port are participating in the many events and happenings that make Port Unique.

In the midst of all of this we begin celebrating what we all like to refer to as "The Holiday Season."

It sort of sneaks up on us with Labor Day, Columbus Day, (I know, the Jewish Holidays were a bit early this year, but will be right after Columbus Day in 2019). Now the celebrations get a bit more intense with Halloween (second in candy sales only to Christmas), Thanksgiving, Chanukah, and, of course, Christmas, Kwanzaa and New Year's. Oh, speaking of intense, do not forget November 6 – Election Day.

It turns out to be quite a list, with celebrations and happenings designed to bring us together in friendship and harmony. Wouldn't it be nice if we could keep the Election Day conversations in the same vein?

We wish everyone a happy and prosperous season, with our annual plea to Shop Local.

Cheers!

Dave Allen

Halloween on Main

"Our organization is very excited to bring this fun event back to Main Street. The merchants really look forward to greeting the trick or treaters. In addition, it's a great way for families to get to know the businesses and all they have to offer. It's very important to shop local because the money you spend in your community goes back into your community." Stated Mariann Dalimonte, Executive Director of the BID.

This event is made possible with the guidance of Nancy Sinoway and the cooperation of The John Philip Sousa Memorial Band Shell Committee, Port Washington Water Pollution Control District, Port Washington Police and all of the merchants on Main Street who have agreed to participate.

Please join your friends and neighbors for Halloween on Main! For more information please contact the BID at 883-8890 or gpwbid@optonline.net.
