Announcing Twin Pines Grand Re-Opening Ribbon Cutting and Sale Beginning September 27

Twin Pines Charitable Community Thrift Store is bursting with pride and bulging with bargains since their summer rejuvenation and remodeling.

A combination of events will begin on Thursday, September 27 including a Thank You Grand Re-Opening Party and Reception highlighted with a ribbon cutting ceremony at 4:30 pm.

In addition, September 27 will be the start of a four day, massive 50% off sale on all clothing items running through Sunday, September 30. This includes all winterwear and coats.

The president, board and staff of The Twin Pines Charitable Community Thrift Store invite everyone to celebrate with us as we show appreciation for all the sponsors, volunteers, shoppers and merchants for all their support of Twin Pines over the past 40 years.

According to Board President Marie Marcellino, "Twin Pines has been completely renovated and rejuvenated to make our bargains more accessible and the overall facility more shopper friendly. In addition we now price all merchandise to make shopping easier and more convenient."

Twin Pines now has clothing throughout the main store and has separate home goods and toy/game rooms.

The old grocery shelves from the days when Twin Pines was an early source of organic foods, produce and canned goods, have been replaced by gleaming clothing racks for easy access and shopping.

Twin Pines has also developed a large assortment of home care products including canes, crutches, walkers and other items often required for short term conditions as well as long term disabilities. These are provided FREE of charge. Individuals are invited to come in and tell the staff of their needs. Non-perishable food items are also often available at no charge.

"I would be remiss if we did not express our appreciation to The Dejana Foundation, Daniel Gale, a number of grants provided by anonymous organizations, the Community Chest and, of course, our staff and board, who so effortlessly held everything together during a most difficult transition," Marie added.

Twin Pines is a 501(c)3 organization located in the Community Chest building with the entrance on Prospect Avenue (across from Louie's). The store is open six days a week: Tuesday-Saturday 10:00 am to 6:00 pm, and Sunday 12:00 noon to 5:00 pm. For more information please call 883-9777.

30,000 and Counting

Dave Allen

The other day a local friend began asking questions and commenting on the PW Calendar. Mostly they wanted to know how we managed to gather and place so many meetings and events into each monthly issue. While giving due credit to Marie and part-time staff of two, I began to do a little math.

First, it is quite surprising that the Calendar is now into its eleventh year of publishing upcoming events and meetings (along with entertainment venues, community sponsorships, etc.). That totals up to more than 120 issues – each containing an average of 250 listings of various sizes, importance and content.

Then came the surprise number; The PW Calendar has published more than 30,000 event listings over the past 10+ years, and most of these have covered Not-for-Profit organizations.

Yes, that feels good – but most important is that this could never happen if Port wasn't so blessed with so many individuals who truly care... about something. We have dozens of organizations with members who donate time, effort and, often, money to help make our world a little better.

So, Congratulations to the people of Port Washington who invent, present, and attend so much, so often throughout the year.

If you have been reluctant to "join up," this is the best time of year to present yourself to an organization that reflects your interests. I guarantee they will welcome you with open arms.

Cheers!

Dave Allen
