"Riotous Spring" Concert and Dinner in Castle Gould, April 6

Sands Point Preserve's historic mansions and waterfront grounds are the backdrop for the second concert in a series that celebrates the four seasons. Created by Series Artistic Director Kathryn Lockwood, each concert is a unique program of chamber music and poetry, inspired by themes throughout the year. The Riotous Spring Concert features Lark Quartet: Deborah Buck & Basia Danilow, Violins; Kathryn Lockwood, Viola; Caroline Stinson, Cello; with Romie de Guise-Langlois, Clarinet and Yousif Sheronick, Percussion; Andrew Waggoner, Poetry Reader. Drawing on the season's bounty, a themed dinner follows each concert.

According to Artistic Director Kathryn Lockwood, "This concert will feature musical works in major keys and upbeat tempi. April is National Poetry Month, so we'll pair music by J.S. Bach, W.A. Mozart, and contemporary composers Enzo Rao Camimi and Anna Weezner with poems by several of the greatest poets: Langston Hughes, E.E. Cummings, Edna St. Vincent Millay, and Elizabeth Bishop." The concert concludes with a series of lively Italian Medieval dance pieces – followed by a sumptuous dinner banquet that recalls Italy in Springtime, curated by Master Chef Nicola Zanghi.

The series is designed for adults, but children 8+ are welcome! Member: Adult: $100/person, Member: Youth (8-18): $50/person, Non-Member: Adult: $110/person, Non-Member: Youth (8-18): $60/person. Visit the website at sandspointpreserve.org or call the ticket line: 304-5076.

Red Stocking Revue Celebrates Woodstock

It's been 50 years since a small town in upstate New York hosted the still famous Woodstock concert. This year's annual CancerCare Port Washington favorite the Red Stocking Revue will bring the audience back to 1969 to a time of Peace, Love and Music. The show features musical numbers and skits that parody popular songs from the Woodstock Generation.

Performances will take place April 11-13 at 8:00 p.m. and April 14 at 2:00 p.m. in the Schreiber High School auditorium on Campus Drive. General admission tickets are $25, seniors are $20 and children under 12 are $15 (for all shows). Tickets can be purchased on cancercarepw.org or at the Schreiber box offer prior to each performance.

Show organizers wish to thank The Peter & Jeri Dejana Family Foundation for generously underwriting the show this year.

Community Chest Honors Frederick Falconer Jr.

Mon., April 8, at 7:30 p.m., at the PW Public Library, in the Lapham Room. The Community Chest's Citizen of the Year Award recognizes "a lifetime of outstanding volunteer service on behalf of the citizens of Port Washington" and has been awarded annually since 1969. The Citizen of the Year ceremony and reception are FREE, and all members of the community are invited to attend.

Frederick Falconer Jr. was born and raised in Port and has lived all his life on our peninsula except for the two years he spent on active duty with the U.S. Army in Germany. Fred is a splendid example of the Community Chest's motto: "The People of Port Helping the People of Port."

For 46 years, he has been devoted to helping our community through his volunteer service with the PW Fire Department, Flower Hill Hose Company. He has bravely fought fires in town and has served on the Flower Hill Hose Company Board of Directors as President and board member. Fred has been a devoted member of the PW Chamber of Commerce, the Lions Club, the United Methodist Church, CancerCare, Business Improvement District, PYA and PAL, often serving on their boards of directors. He was proudly Grand Marshal in the 2016 Pride in Port Parade, and he was honored by the Port Washington Senior Citizens Center in 2013 for his exemplary service. Fred is a third-generation owner of S.F. Falconer, Florist. Through his extreme generosity to many local nonprofit organizations, he has demonstrated a lifelong commitment to the strength of Port Washington.

To honor Fred Falconer and to raise money for its grantee organizations, the Community Chest prepares a Journal and invites community members to support the journal. For more information about the event, the journal, or to RSVP, contact the Community Chest at 767-2121 or info@portchest.org.

Can everybody just get back to work and enjoying life???

Its spring and time to go back to enjoying the good things in life.

I do not know about you, but I have just about had it with the continuous barrage of political screaming, yelling, carping, complaining, half truths, outright lying and ... well, you know what I mean.

It seems to me that the politicians are walking a very thin line or making a career ending bet. Either the public (that's us) are going to completely shut down and ignore everything – including "the sky is falling," or get really angry and simply adhere to a common theme: "If you are in, you are out."

No, I am not asking to only hear Chopin, smell Chanel, or see Lilies. But I would really like some straight truths out of our politician's mouths.

Maybe it is the sound bite era, but it appears that the only thing that matters is a slogan with alliteration or rhyme... Or maybe it is us who embraced the idea capitalized on by USA Today by ignoring the pertinent background details and feeding us a diet of McPaper, but I would like to hear "the rest of the story" as a Chicago broadcaster used to say.

If we cannot have more straight talk, how about demanding that the people we elected to represent us, get out from behind the microphones and go to work ... that's what we are paying them for. My apologies to Ms. Hunt my high school English teacher for the sentence ending with a preposition.

OK, so I have just contributed to the same noise level I decry. My apologies.

Let's go back to the subject of spring: hit the beach, go out to eat, clean up the yard, plant a garden and enjoy the spring.
